

In response to the outbreak of COVID-19, the West Nyack Free Library is committed to keeping patrons and staff members as safe as possible.

- The Library Building is open to the public for Grab and Go hours. Masks are required. At this time, we offer twenty minutes of browsing or 30 minutes of computer use.
- Our bookdrops are open. No fines will be charged during this period.
- Curbside Service is available.
- Community room bookings and in-building library programs will be on hold until it is deemed safe to congregate in large numbers. Virtual programs for all ages are available. See our website program calendar.

As always, our electronic resources are available 24/7 through our website

- Books, eAudio, eMagazines - Overdrive (Libby by Overdrive)
- movies - Hoopla and/or Kanopy
- tutoring, resume assistance - Tutor.com
- financial news - ValueLine.com
- New York Times (digital) - Look for tab on top of our website that says BOOK/AUDIO/DIGITAL; click on MAGAZINES AND DATABASES; click on NEWSPAPERS; scroll down to New York Times

To contact us:

Call us during regular library hours, 845 358-6081

Email publicservice@westnyacklibrary.org with reference questions

Email director@westnyacklibrary.org with questions or concerns related to the library

Email circulation@westnyacklibrary.org for library card or material questions

Our Library eNewsletter is currently being sent every week.

It includes library news, program information, and community news.

To enroll, go to our homepage and look on the right side. Click on SIGN UP FOR OUR NEWSLETTERS. The Library eNewsletter is listed first. Choose as many eNewsletters as you like by clicking the boxes; then add your name and email at the bottom of the page.

We appreciate your support as we continue to provide library services to our community.