David Rosenfelt does it again. He scores another home run with his new series the K-Team, spinoff of the Andy Carpenter series. Laurie Carpenter, Corey Douglas, a retired Patterson cop, along with his canine partner Simon and Marcus, Andy's investigator form an investigation firm called The K-Team.

Their first client is a Judge with a stellar career and reputation as well as Andy's nemesis in the courtroom. The Judge is being blackmailed and wants to find out who the blackmailer is. The story works its way through a maze of characters with the K-Team finding the answer and why. A very enjoyable read.
